MARSHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

167 Forest Street, Marshfield, MA 02050
www.mpsd.org
Principal Robert E. Keuther, Jr.
Total enrollment: 1368

Mr. Keuther

Respect:

to regard someone or something as being worthy of admiration because of good qualities: to act in a way which shows that you are aware of someone's rights and wishes

Class of 2017:

We began our year on a mountain with the challenge to respect everyone, everywhere--to value each individual above yourself, to make certain that in each instance you were respectful to yourself, to others, to our school and to our community. These are values that we live by at MHS and values, that if adhered to, will provide you the foundation for being a great human being. To what greater goal could we aspire?

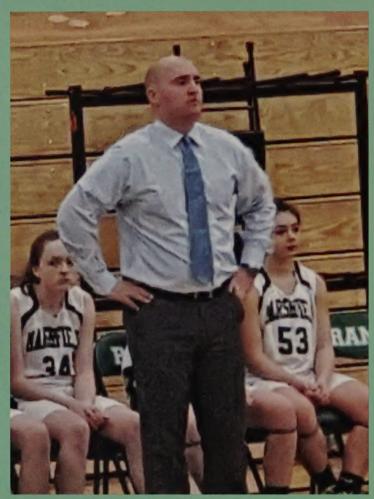

You have worked hard, achieved in every aspect of school life, and are prepared for the future.

Go, change our world, and make it a respectful place.

Class of 2017, We are proud of you!

#WeRMarshfield

Teachers We Love: Mr. Levings

"Mr. Levings:) He's very nice and great:) "

"Mr. Levings because he is cool and nice to everyone and has a good relationship with a lot of students in our class."

"Mr. Levings because he's the man!"

"Mr. Levings has a good interaction with all his students and he always keeps a positive attitude."

"Mr. Levings - He is a stand up guy who often gets overlooked"

and Ms. Goode

"I would like to see the yearbook dedicated to Ms. Goode this year because she is a great teacher and she values each of her students equally."

"Ms. Goode, best woman on this planet"

"Ms. Good is such a free spirit and she cares so much about her students. She makes learning fun!"

"I believe that the yearbook should be dedicated to Ms. Goode. She is most deserving due to her great teaching skills and her genuine love for her students."

"Ms. Goode is a great teacher who will do anything for any child in need. She makes every class entertaining and is just an all around great person; She deserves the best!"

"Ms. Goode. She is hands down one of the nicest, kindest, most understanding teachers or people I have ever met. She makes an effort to form a connection with every single student who walks in her classroom. She makes students feel special by singing "Why do Birds Suddenly Appear" when they give a deserving answer. If I see her in the hallway even two years after taking her class she will say "How are you today?" and you know she means it. She would honestly do anything for anyone, and in the classroom she would make sure to instill life lessons in all of our classes. She is one of the most down to earth people I have ever met and she exemplifies what being a teacher should be like."

TO THE CLASS OF 2017

I am not a procrastinator. I have known for four years that I need to write this yearbook dedication to the Class of 2017. I believe that the reason of my procrastination is not that I don't want to write it, it is that I truly don't want to say goodbye. I feel that in many ways this is just our beginning. But, what I do know is that today is your day. I want each of you to smile, breathe, acknowledge the ones around you that have been a part of your journey the past four years.

Your journey began when you walked in the front doors of Marshfield High School as freshmen. You were given a map, syllabus, books, agendas and a schedule. Each of you embraced the tools given to you in different manners. You all grew each time you walked in the front door and in and out of the classrooms. Your teachers were there to share your accomplishments and to provide you with encouraging words when times were difficult. Your accomplishments have been impressive. The Class of 2017 has scholars, artists, musicians, athletes, model citizens and truly good friends.

Each of you need to be proud of your accomplishments and the times spent walking the halls of MHS. No longer needing a map, you have grown into individuals who will now leave the building and start down a new path. Where this path takes you will be your choice. You will make mistakes along the way--make mistakes, learn from them, make every moment count and live your dream.

Your dream might be to pursue higher education, some of you will join our military, some will attend trade school and others will enter the workforce. Find that passion, stay true to yourself and follow your path. Remember what you have learned over the past years, believe in yourself as we have believed in you. I look forward to seeing all of you in the future and hearing of your accomplishments. I am truly going to miss your smiling faces walking down the hallway, or asking to buy a ticket even though the deadline was a month ago. It has been a great pleasure in being your class advisor over the past four years. I have enjoyed every moment of it, I wish you all the best and it is never goodbye- this is just a pass until we meet again.

Mrs. S.

lass History:

reshman year: the beginning of our legacy at MHS. We all came into our first year at the high school nervous, but excited to start our new journey. We started the year off quickly with the Freshman Leadership Academy, where apperclassmen and teachers helped us understand what it means to Show Up, Grow Up and Step Up as an MHS and the long for us to understand the school and all of its quirks (the ghetto hallway and the foldable ralls are something we all can remember). Towards the end of the year, we also hosted Freshman Fun Night. We got together as a class and really had an awesome time. Our first year had been a whole new experience, so we all were excited to what else high school had in store for us...

ophomore year: the year we grew as leaders in our school. Moving into the new school may be seen as a challenge, ut within a week of entering the school we had adapted well to our new environment. Our football team became state hampions and we followed them in pride. We took part in hosting Marshfield Idol to not only raise money for our lass, but to showcase some of the great talent our school has to offer. As the end of our sophomore year had pproached, we all had shown how we transformed into leaders. Many people had gotten jobs and taken on more esponsibilities as students and as people in general. Our second year of high school had been fun, but we were all in nticipation for what junior year would be like...

unior year: our year to shine. Not only had we been thinking about our schoolwork in the present, but we also had to tart to think about what we would like to do with our futures. From the start of the year, we attended college fairs to elp educate us for what we might want to pursue in the future. Along with that, we also began to drive -- something re had all been waiting for! We also placed second in our annual Pride Week. But overall, the main highlight of the ear was our Prom. We danced, ate and all had a great time. We even got to watch the Rev's play during Prom ras definitely a night none of us will ever forget. As the end of our Junior year was near, after all the standardized tests and long nights of homework, we were finally ready to become Seniors...

enior year: the end of our legacy at MHS. The final chapter. Our final mark on Marshfield High School. Our class ame out with a glaring sense of togetherness and pride in our school. We showed our togetherness as we articipated in Meeting On The Mountain. It is here where David Geddes may still be heard screaming our Ram's hant from atop the mountain. Soon after, we showed our pride by placing first in the annual Pride Week. Our boy's ockey team made history by becoming the first hockey team in MHS history to make the Super 8 Tournament. And our cheerleading team became National Champions. And as the months began to wind down, we gathered at Senior light Out, Senior Banquet and our now upcoming graduation. Now that's a lot to be proud of! We have truly made a asting impression in our final year at MHS.

o all of the Class of 2017, "We Made 17". After countless hours of studying, homework and other school activities, it as all paid off in the end. And as we now begin to embark onto the next chapter in our lives, whether it's off to college r in the workplace, we take along the values we have learned from our experiences at MHS. And that's definitely to book back on. See you all at Graduation!

incerely your officers,

U.S. PRESIDENTIAL NEWSWORTHY ELECTION & DEBATES In the lead up to Donald Trump's win of the 2016 U.S. Presidential Election, 84 million people watched the first 2016 Presidential Debate between Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton, 66.5 million watched the second and 71.6 million the third, say the Nielsen ratings. That's two out of the three most watched Presidential debates on record.

DUMPING ICY WATER ON ALS

In the summer of 2014 the "Ice Bucket Challenge" raised $115 million in eight weeks. These donations, that helped fund more research, have paid off. The specific gene responsible for ALS has been identified, which brings scientists one step closer to discovering a cure.

FAKE NEWS FLOOD

In the wake of the 2016 U.S. Presidential election, Americans became aware of a growing problem with the news media. Many political news stories widely shared on social media websites were discovered to be fake. Whether the spread of such stories influenced the political opinion in any significant way is still under investigation.

IATURAL DISASTERS

very year has its share of reminders that humans are still at the mercy of the forces of ature, and this year was no different. In August, Louisiana suffered a devastating flood, e result of more than 31 inches of rainfall in 15 hours. It was the worst natural disaster nce Hurricane Sandy. In September, Hurricane Matthew moved through the Caribbean, rentually traveling along the Eastern coastal region of the U.S. In all, the Hurricane resulted 49 deaths and around $6 billion in damage. In November, Winter Storm Argos let fall $1 inches of snow in Central New York, and in Binghamton, NY it became the largest lowstorm since 1905.

ZIKA THREAT REMAINS

The Zika virus, transmitted to humans by mosquitoes, is linked to birth defects, putting pregnant women most at risk for contraction. The virus first became known to U.S. citizens from its widely publicized outbreak in Brazil, which gave rise to a flood of travel warnings. Although the World Health Organization declared that Zika is no longer a global emergency, the threat has spread to U.S. soil, both to Florida and Texas, prompting the Center for Disease Control to issue an advisory against travel for pregnant women to certain counties in these states.

CRISIS IN ALEPPO

Over the last two decades, the Battle for Aleppo has grown out the Syrian Civil war. Rebel forces in conflict with Syrian Forces advanced on Aleppo in February 2012, turning the city into an increasingly embattled warzone. Since then, civilian deaths have reached into the tens of thousands. In December 2016, a ceasefire was declared between the rebel groups and government-backed forces, and the evacuation of the rebels and their families followed.

RECORD HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION RATE

The end of the 2015-2016 school year narked a high point for educators, students and parents throughout the J.S., when more students successfully graduated than in any previous year. It was the fifth record-setting year in a row, raising the high school graduation rate to an all-time high of 84%.

MALL OF AMERICA GOES DARK ON THANKSGIVING

The Mall of America, the U.S.'s biggest indoor mall, decided to keep its doors closed on Thanksgiving. This meant turning consumers away on the eve of Black Friday, the biggest consumer spending day of the year. The move came at no small cost, but benefited the many employees, allowing them to spend the holiday with friends and family.

DAKOTA ACCESS PIPELINE

The Dakota Access Pipeline is a proposed project to install a pipeline between North Dakota and Illinois. The pipeline would transport 570,000 barrels of crude oil a day harvested from North Dakota's Bakken Shale. The project has come under controversy, with protesters objecting that the pipeline endangers sections of the Missouri River, a primary source of drinking water of the Native American Sioux Tribe. Responding to safety concerns, the Department of the Army declared that it will discover and use an alternative pipeline route. Removing much uncertainty around the future of the project, President Trump, in the week after taking office, issued a Presidential Memorandum effectively permitting the completion of pipeline.

A GREAT YEAR... A FEW GREAT LOSSES

Among the triumphs and joy of the year, we also lost a few of humanity's best. Among them, actor Carrie Fisher; musician Prince; athlete Muhammad Ali; and astronaut John Glenn.

HEART-TO-HEART DISCOVERIE. By growing heart muscle cells in the lab from stem cells donated by a healthy macaque monkey, scientists have successfully regenerated the damaged heart of another macaque monkey. Scientists involved in the study think human trials are likely in a few years, and could pave the way to curing many forms of heart disease.

HEALTHY, WOOLY AND WISE

In 1996, Dolly the Sheep started out her life unlike most sheep, in a test tube as a clone. She became a scientific media phenomenon, and potential evidence that cloning methods worked. Six years later she was put to rest after tumors were found in her lung. Her premature death left in its wake questions about whether clones could live healthy lives. Now, 20 years later, it looks like the question has been answered. Daisy, Diana, Debbie, and Denise are sheep cloned from the same cell line as Dolly, but unlike her, have aged into their senior years, as healthy as any non-cloned sheep.

NEW GIRAFFE SPECIES SPOTTED

A new study analyzing the DNA of 190 giraffes across Africa revealed an unexpected fact. What was formerly thought to be a single species of giraffe turns out to be not one, but four species: the southern giraffe; the Masai giraffe; the reticulated giraffe, and the northern giraffe.

FEATHERS FROM THE PREHISTORIC PAST

The feathers of a dinosaur's tail was discovered preserved in a 99-million-year-old piece of amber, marking the first time dinosaur material has been found preserved in such a way. Lida Xing, a geoscientist from China University, found the specimen for sale at an amber market in Myanmar.

GOLDILOCKS PLANET DISCOVERED

Proxima B could be a potentially Earth-like, habitable, and life-containing planet located in the vicinity of Proxima Centauri. At 24.94 trillion miles away, this makes it the nearest star to our own solar system. Proxima B is in a "Goldilocks" region that allows for the possibility of both life and water in its liquid state. In other words, it's not so distant from its own sun that it's too cold, but not so close that it's too hot.

Advancing scientific research is helping those afflicted with paralysis. A man, once paralyzed from the chest down, is now able to play a computerized guitar with the aid of a computer chip implanted in his brain. Another, a quadriplegic, is now able to manipulate a robotic hand and feel pressure from its fingertips.

CRISPR GENE EDITING

CRISPR, a new tool developed by scientists is paving the way to a world in which we can cure any disease, prevent any infections, and design organisms from the ground up. CRISPR genome editing technology, which allows for the precise and direct manipulation of specific genes, has the potential to transform the field of biology and the power of medicine.

HUMANS ON MARS BY 2030?

Working toward bringing humans to Mars, NASA is developing ways to keep humans alive on their journey to the Red Planet, their stay, and then the return trip back to Earth. One such method may be the use of a newly discovered Martian ice deposit, which contains as much water as Lake Superior, the largest freshwater lake on Earth.

NO MORE WAITING IN LINE

Amazon, known for its online retail and web services, opened a brick-and-mortar grocery store to revolutionize the "good, old-fashioned" shopping experience. Its Seattle-based "Amazon Go" test store enables shoppers to enter the store, pick up items and then walk out, all without waiting in a line or interacting with a cashier. Everything is tracked, charged, and handled automatically through an app on your smartphone.

WHERE IS REALITY HEADED?

Two new innovated, related technologies, "mixed or augmented reality" and "virtual reality," are starting to grab public attention. Both use "head mounted displays"—basically computer displays strapped to users' heads like glasses or goggles—to project information onto real world objects or allow for total immersion into digital space. The equipment is still costly but becoming cheaper, with companies from Microsoft to Sony creating products aimed at the everyday consumer.

DRONE DELIVERIES TAKE FLIGHT

Amazon ramped up its delivery technologies by testing its first shipment by drone. The delivery, placed online, took 13 minutes from the point of purchase to the drone's arrival at the doorstep. The capability is still limited to a small number of customers, but Amazon hopes someday to bring the technology to a majority of their customers.

LISTEN UP!

Apple's iPhone 7 ditched the decadesold headphone jack in its new line of smartphones. If owners can't part with their favorite set of earbuds, adapters are available that fit the old jacks into new iPhones.

THE POWER OF THE SUN

After 550 hours of flight and 25,000 miles of travel, Solar Impulse 2 touched down, completing the world's first solar-powered flight around the globe. The aircraft embarked from Abu Dhabi and 18 months later completed its round-trip. While the aircraft itself could have made the flight without stopping, the pilots needed to land every month to rest up before resuming. Future expectations for the aircraft is to fly solar powered around the globe on autopilot.

U.S. DOMINATES RIO OLYMPICS

U.S. Olympians took home more gold from the 2016 Olympics than any other nation. 46 gold medals in all. That's nearly twice than second-spot Great Britain's 27 gold medals. Among the many national highlights, Michael Phelps became the most decorated Olympian of all time, Ashton Eaton won gold in men's decathlon, and the U.S. Women's Basketball team won gold. U.S. gymnast Simone Biles won 4 gold medals and secured her spot as the most decorated gymnast of all time.

U.S. RETURNS TO RYDER CUP VICTORY

SPARKS TRIUMPH OVER LYNX IN WNBA FINALS

The LA Sparks beat the Minnesota Lynx in the WNBA Finals 3 games to 1. The team's first championship win since 2002 was, however, not without controversy. In a postgame review of late-game footage, WNBA officials determined that a late-game shot by Nneka Ogwumike "should not have counted due to a shot-clock violation, and that the referees improperly failed to review the play under the instant replay rules." Despite this commentary, the win officially stands, with the victory going to the Sparks.

CLEVELAND CAV'S AMAZING COMEBACK

The Cleveland Cavaliers won the NBA Finals, beating the Golden State Warriors 93-87 in game 7 of the NBA Finals. The win ended a 52-year drought for the Cavs, and also marked the team as the first to come back in the Finals from being down 3-1.

WIMBLEDON 2016

Serena Williams claimed the Wimbledon title for the 7th time in 14 years. The win marked Williams' 22nd major singles title. It also tied her with Steffi Graf for the Open-Era Grand Slam record.

THE CUBS WIN!

Winning their first championship title since 1908, the Chicago Cubs won the World Series. The 108-year drought came to an end when the Cubs beat the Cleveland Indians 8 - 7 in game 7. The two opposing teams represented the longest winless streaks in their respective leagues, with the Indians failing to win the World Series since 1948. In all, the final game pulled in 40 million viewers, the most since the final game of the 1991 World Series.

"YOUR CHOICES MATTER"

Justin Timberlake accepted Teen Choice's "Decade Award" for his "continuous evolvement as an artist for the past 10 years." After Kobe Bryant presented the award, Timberlake offered his young audience an empowering message: "As a former teen... I'm here to tell you that you and your choices matter." This marks Timberlake's 23rd Teen Choice Award.

FLIPPING OUT

The trick, known simply as "water bottle flipping," is one of the biggest crazes of the year. Take a partially filled bottle of water, hold it from its mouth, flip it through the air, and get it to stick its landing upright. As thousands of kids can attest, the trick requires finesse, control and tons of practice. The original water bottle flipping video that started it all racked up 6.6 million views in under five months.

THE YOUTUBE GENERATION

Traditional channel surfing is becoming a thing of the past, as the next generation of viewers find new ways to kick back and relax. Teens are now watching 2.5 times more YouTube than cable TV. This, while streaming services like Netflix continue to garner wider use, and once-exclusive cable networks like HBO begin their own online streaming platforms in an attempt to recapture audiences.

MEMES, MOST SEARCHED INTERNET TERM

According to Google Trends, which tracks the popularity of terms people search for on Google, "memes" is now the number one most searched word. And what exactly is a meme? It's an image with a catchy phrase or a humorous video. Memes aren't always merely silly though. Some are political, and some have important social messages. In any case, memes are everywhere these days, and it looks like they are here to stay.

WORLD GETS BUSY STAYING STILL

"The Mannequin Challenge," one of the biggest viral video phenomena of the year, drew participants from schools to stadiums to workplaces with its simple idea--freeze time and film it. Whether the situation was common or strange, in a large group or small, it meant everyone kept completely still, "mannequin-like," sometimes in elaborate poses, while a cameraperson roamed through the scene and filmed it. The resulting videos, often set to music, were the thing to watch this year.

EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN

1980s and 1990s fashion is back. Walk the halls of any school and you'll see high-tops, overalls, birkenstocks, shirts slung around the waist, high-waisted jeans, flannels, backpacks, crop tops, and hoop earrings. Metallic lipstick, too, is getting its fair share of attention. It might not be a throwback, but it seems to pair well with the wider trend.
